

CHERYL FRANCIS
Co-Founder and Co-Chairman
Corporate Leadership Center

Cheryl Francis is a director of three corporate boards: Aon plc, Morningstar, and HNI Corporation. She is a Cornell University Emeritus Trustee and Presidential Councillor, and a board member of the United Way of Metropolitan Chicago. Francis formerly was Chair of The Chicago Network, Chicago's leading professional women's organization. Cheryl was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of R.R. Donnelley and Sons Co. from 1995-2000, where she oversaw all financial functions, including mergers and acquisitions, of this $5 billion print services company.

Earlier in her career, Cheryl was Treasurer of FMC Corporation, its first woman officer, and an adjunct professor at the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business. She is a frequent lecturer and panelist in university and business settings on subjects ranging from corporate governance, strategy and leadership and the advancement of women. Cheryl earned her BS degree from Cornell University and MBA from University of Chicago Booth School of Business.